Band Director's Report:

Mr. Vitale reported that we are starting plans for the Florida trip in 2014. Information will be coming home in the next month. The trip will be scheduled for next year's spring break, Monday thru Saturday. They have applied to be in the nighttime Electric Light Parade. Mr. Vitale stated that we won't find out when or where we are performing until February of 2014. Information on the payment schedule will be coming out soon. You won't need to make any payments until August. Mr. Vitale stated that they are thinking about the cost of the Rose Bowl trip and fundraising options. He stated that they are working on our resume and portfolio, and need people to help with the video and picture portion and letter writing. The contest concert is next Wednesday, March 6th. Mr. Vitale stated that this will be your only chance to take pictures and videos of this performance. Video recording and picture-taking are prohibited at contest. At this time, Mr. Vitale has no schedule of the contest performances. Contest will be at Avon Lake High School on March 15 and 16. Please keep both days open. Mr. Vitale announced that we will be hosting the state competition at NRHS again, this year. Mr. Vitale reported that band registration will take place before spring break this year. The goal is to order all clothing items and get all medical and registration fees before band camp begins. Seniors will be putting information for band awards online. Mr. Vitale hopes to have next season's calendar out before spring break.

Adjournment:

A motion to adjourn the meeting was made by Sue Galuska and seconded by Ben Jamiot. The meeting was adjourned at 7:45PM.

The next meeting will be on Monday, March 25, at 7 PM in the Community Room.

These minutes respectfully submitted by;
Sue Pellechia
